HES
COLLABORATIVE HEALTH

Healing. Empowerment. Synergy.

Build Your Practice in a Place That Values People.

RMT OPPORTUNITIES | PORT COQUITLAM, BC

HES Collaborative Health is a multidisciplinary clinic grounded in ethical practice, compassionate care, professional respect, and collaboration. We're looking to connect with thoughtful RMTs who want to be part of a welcoming, patient-centred environment.

Who We'd Love to Hear From

- Newly registered RMTs ready to build confidence and grow a sustainable practice.
- Experienced RMTs interested in a supportive, multidisciplinary setting.
- Eligible candidates preparing for registration examinations who would like to discuss future opportunities.

Support That Lets You Focus on Patient Care

HES provides everything you need to run your practice smoothly, including:

- Fully furnished and equipped treatment rooms
- Reception and administrative support
- JaneApp for scheduling, charting, and billing
- Marketing and patient outreach
- Laundry services and treatment supplies

ETHICAL CARE
Patient-centred and respectful practice

COLLABORATION
Work alongside a multidisciplinary team

PROFESSIONAL GROWTH
Support for a meaningful and sustainable career

Still preparing for your registration exam? You're welcome to contact us to express interest and discuss future opportunities. Candidates must obtain the required registration with the College of Complementary Health Professionals of BC (CCHPBC) before practising as RMTs in British Columbia.
